AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of TIME SERVED

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $71,360 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $71,360 to victim(s) as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the Probation Office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded by the Probation Officer to the fiscal section of the Clerk's Office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

A partial payment of at least $3,000 shall be paid immediately. The defendant shall make nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross income, but not less than $300, whichever is greater, during the term of probation. Payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's current economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the full amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participant Luis Mariano Rodriguez (Docket No. CR-16-00110-BRO) for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Rene Exequiel Bautista, is hereby placed on SUPERVISED RELEASE on the single-count Information for a term of three years under following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. The defendant shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment.
3. The defendant shall pay the costs of Location Monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12 for each day of participation. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. This condition is suspended for a period of 30 days.

In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
7. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.

USA vs. RENE EXEQUIEL BAUTISTADocket No.: CR 16-00108 BRO

8. The defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, including financial records, pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.
9. The defendant shall refrain from participating in any form of gambling activity, including the purchase of lottery tickets, until the restitution and any other court ordered financial obligations are paid in full.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

Defendant informed that he has waived his right to appeal.

On the Government's motion, all remaining counts of the underlying indictment/ information are ordered dismissed.

Bond is exonerated upon completion of home confinement.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed.
